Immunisation helps to protect you from disease

During a pandemic, it's more important than ever to keep up with infant, child and adult immunisations to prevent outbreaks of other diseases. Make an appointment with your GP practice, and make sure you and your children are protected.

Vaccination appointments count as an important medical reason to leave your home.

A poster for 'WE PLAY SURE' featuring a man and a woman. The man is wearing a white tank top and has tattoos on his arms. The woman is wearing a white tank top and has long brown hair. They are both smiling and looking at the camera. The background is a solid pink color. The text 'WE PLAY SURE' is written in large, bold, black letters. Below it, 'PrEP + CONDOMS' is written in pink letters on a white background. At the bottom, there is a blue banner with white text that reads 'BE HIV & STI SURE. If you are HIV negative, PrEP is a daily pill that protects you from HIV. Condoms add more protection against HIV and help prevent other Sexually Transmitted Infections. Combine these tools to stay healthy and prevent the spread of HIV and other STIs. PLAY SURE: Call 311 or visit nyc.gov/health to design the right HIV and STI prevention combination for you. Tax Benefits for Having Dependents

FAMILY

December 9, 2019 / Ginita Wall, CPA, CFP® English /
NEW Español

Kids can be overwhelming when they are cooped up in the house during summer or winter break, but they are also blessed tax-savers when you file your taxes.

Even though the dependency exemption was eliminated under the new tax law beginning with your 2018 taxes, there are still some tax benefits you can take advantage of to maximize your tax refund if you have kids and other dependents.

Child Tax Credit: You may be eligible for a tax credit, which is even better than a tax deduction because it reduces your taxes dollar-for-dollar. The Child Tax Credit is increased to a $2,000 credit under the new tax law (it was previously $1,000 for 2017) and is available if you have a dependent child under the age of 17. ~~The income threshold at which~~
